Mayline is Named “Manufacturer of the Year” by WorkPlace Furnishings

SHEBOYGAN, WI—April 21, 2014—Mayline is proud to announce their recent selection as “Manufacturer of the Year” by WorkPlace Furnishings at their recent annual National Conference in Florida. This award is presented annually to the supplier that best meets the criteria in sales growth, dealer field support, meeting participation, group participation and organization support.

“We are honored to be recognized by Workplace Furnishings for this prestigious award,” said Steve Coder, President of Mayline. “At Mayline we focus on providing a better experience for our dealers. We believe that Success Breeds Success. It’s very satisfying to see the results of Mayline associates’ hard work.

WorkPlace Furnishings is the Association of leading interior workspace providers and for the past 50 years has been adding value with programs that help dealerships become better businesses and that help their supplier partners leverage the power of superior dealer distribution.
